Don't Go Backward Read The Daily Standard The News Is Clean. "First In Everything"

The Ogden Standard.

FEARLESS, INDEPENDENT, PROGRESSIVE NEWSPAPER

4 P.M. CITY EDITION

WEATHER-Tonight and Tuesday fair; not much change in temperature

Forty-fourth Year-No. 297.

OGDEN CITY, UTAH, MONDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 2, 1914.

Entered as Second Class Matter at the Postoffice, Ogden, Utah

Turkey Apologizes For the Hostile Acts in Black Sea

London, Nov. 2, 5:25 p. m.—The Grand Vizier of Turkey has apologized for recent events in the Black Sea.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Russia has ordered all German and Austrian subjects to leave Russia within the next two weeks, according to a notification today to the United States government.

ALLIES MAKE GAINS AGAINST GERMANS

GHENT IS NOW CUT OFF FROM ALL COMMUNICATION WITH OUTSIDE WORLD

TIDE OF BATTLE FLOWING AGAINST THE GERMANS IN WESTERN ARENA

No Important Changes Are Reported But Slow Advance of Extreme Left of Allies in West Flanders Is Claimed—Germans Not Yet Ready to Abandon Attempt to Reach Calais-Allied Forces Are Reported to Be Within a Short Walk of Ostend.

KAISER CONFIDENT ALLIES WILL BE BEATEN

German Assaults Continue With Almost Unparalleled Fury-Sacrifices of Life Are Enormous-Berlin and Paris Official Statements Both Claim Satisfactory Progress -Russia and Great Britain Defer Formal

London, Oct. 2, 12:34 p. m.—The Turkish ambassador to England Tewfik Pasha, was handed his passports today.

Berlin, Oct. 2, via London, 10:55 a. m.—In addressing the Brandenberg regiment in France recently at a point behind the fort. Emperor William closed his speech with these words: "When the war is finished we should see each other again. Under all circumstances, the enemy will be beaten." This information is conveyed in a letter received in Berlin from the barding the town of St. Die.

Berlin, Nov. 2, by Wireless.—The battle in progress between the Germans and Russians in the Suwalki and Augustowa regions, according to an official announcement issued here today continued undecided. The Austrians in an unofficial report claim a success in the Macva region of Northwest Servia, they look to see the fallure of the bounded by the rivers Save and Drina, Petrograd, Nov. 2, via London, 2 p. m.—A dispatch from Sebastopol says that the former German cruiser Goeben's have not regained all of the lost bombardment of that Black Sea fort was put to an end by the ground in the valley of the Yser, their Constantinowskawa batteries, which forced the warship to promise of a general success. In withdraw. The shore station subsequently intercepted a wireless message from the Goeben which said: "Damaged. Will the railroad while the inundation efreturn to Constantinople for repairs.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 2.—A private cable received today from Para, Brazil, reports the destruction of the British in the latest Belgian official statesteamship Van Dyke by a German cruiser. The passengers ments. were put ashore. The Van Dyke plied between Buenos Aires and New York.

Washington, Nov. 2.-Martial law was proclaimed today by Creat Britain throughout Egypt. An official notifica- kapelle is an important point. tion by the British Charge d' Affaires at Cairo, was delivered to American diplomatic agents there. On orders from London, the commander-in-chief of he British forces took command of the general situation with orders to suppress all out-

Nov. 2, 2:48 p. m .- The great violence. In spite of the counter attacks of the enemy in this re-French official announcement given out in Paris this afternoon says that gion, the French made slight pro yesterday the German attack on the gress French left wing, particularly between part of the Germans, we made slight hygienic supplies will be immediately progress on almost the entire front, excepting at the village of Messines, a Lieut. Col. Roussett, the military part of which again was lost by the critic, in reviewing the recent opera-

Dixmude and the Lys, continued with

Le Quesnoy-en-Santerre.
"On the center—in the region of the Aisne, we made slight progress in the direction of Tracy-le-Val, to the north of the forest of Aigne, as well as at certain points on the right bank of the Aisne between this forest and ticed yesterday a recrudescence of leaving three activity on the part of the enemy's men on the field.

heavy artillery. The hombardment of "The enemy delivered another at neavy artillery. these pieces, however, did not show any appreciable result

"On our right wing an offensive novement of reconnaissance by the nemy on Nomeny was repulsed. "In the Vosges, in addition to the have recaptured the heights which dominate Mount Sainte Marie, we have made progress in the region of Bande Sapt, where we occupy the positions from which the Pari's, Nov. 2, 6:50 a. m .- The alled troops, according to official information here, still are determinedy meeting the latest vigorous offenlve movement of the Germans in Belgium and in France. To date the French and English assert that the balance of gains is in their favor and German offensive in this section indicated soon by a general and defin-ite withdrawal of the enemy on the right bank of the Yser.

While it is admitted that the allies the vicinity of Nicuport and Dixmude fected between the Yser and the Nieuport-Dixmude line has rendered the ground there so swampy that the German trenches have become uninhabitable. This last fact is noted

Allies Hold Important Point,

Referring to the developments the line from Dixmude to Ypres, the Belgian statement is precise in announcement that Poalkapelle has been surrounded by the allies, is the center of the net work of communication of routes and rallroads be tween Dixmude and Ypres, Roulers and Thourout, nificance in the announcement that in one week 7,683 German prisoners have been taken than appears on its face. They assert that when such a number can be gathered in it indicates that the German troops are becoming worn out or are suffering from normal depression Sanitary measures to avoid epidem fensive continued yesterday with the same violence in Belgium and in the north of France, particularly Dixmude ing the ravages of war, will be visand the Lys. In this region, in spite ited sooner or later. Of this num-of attacks and counter-attacks on the ber there are eleven hundred where tions, declares it is impossible "The enemy undertook an important movement against the suburbs of Ar ras. This resulted in failure as did enough men to prolone the contest enough men to prolong the contest. other movements against Lihons and He believes he is able to affirm, how-Le Quesnoy-en-Santerre.

Servians Repulse Enemy.

Soissons.

"At Amont-de-Vally, an attack directed against those of our troops who are in possession of the heights on the right bank of the Aisne also to the direction of Gutchevo bombarded our positions at Eminova and resulted in failure. The same outcome attended several night attacks delivered on the heights of the high-way Des Dames.

"In the region of Rheims—between the Agonne and the Meuse and on the Agonne and the Meuse and on the Meuse the Argonne and the Meuse and on the enemy, sustaining heavy losses, near the Beigian frontier and in Belthe heights of Meuse, there was no was forced to fall back in disorder gium itself. Virtually all the Britofficers and about 300 tack on our positions in the evening, but was again forced to retire with

"Nothing of importance has occur red on the remainder of the front.

Turks to Proclaim Holy War. Evidence accumulates that Turkey

ntends to proclaim a holy war. ple measures, however, it is asserted, have been taken by Great Britain and Russia against this probability, is evident that the first trouble is expected to arise in Egypt, where, is said, the Khedive intends to ask for an explanation of her attitude to

Berlin claims forced to throw in her lot with Ger many because the porte recognized that an entente victory would mean the disruption of the Turkish empire with Constantinople, Armenia Turkestan going to Russia, Arabia to England and Syria to France. On the other hand in the event of the defeat of the triple entente nations, Turkey was to be guaranteed territorially to be given aid in conquering the caucasus and Egypt, and be given, perhaps, something more,

The usual charges and denials are being made as to the responsibility in the British regular army for peri-for the attack in the Blacksea, but ods ranging from 7 to 12 years and these are issued chiefly for consumpion by the neutral countries, since cruits. the inevitability of the conflict was recognized by both sides. The principal actors are not greatly concerned which nation fired the opening

Advances at Fearful Cost The battles along the Belgian coast still are dragging on with painful mo-Advances by either side are for only short distances and are a fearful cost. Further east the allies claim to have penetrated to the north and to the east of Lille, which is be lleved to have been re-occupied by the allied troops. Other reports claim that the allies daily are creeping nearer to Ostend, which even now hardly can be said to be occupied in a military but as long as the Germans hold the river the town does not need any onsiderable force to retain it. Another unconfirmed special report also states that large German forces were cut off from the main army when a Belgian bicycle corps up a bridge and that many thousands of the invaders surrendered.

The text follows:

Sanitary measures to avoid epidemOn our left wing, the German of-lics are being taken on a large scale

(Additional War News on Page 12) order were confirmed, but with con-

Three Hundred Thousand in North of France Under Gen. Sir John French.

MANY SEASONED MEN

Kitchener Training Million New Soldiers for Spring Campaign.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

Paris, Oct. 20 .- No fewer than 300, ish soldiers in the field are men of considerable service, many of them having had from 10 to 12 years training, and having participated in Great Britain's "little wars" in various parts The gaps in their of the world ranks are filled by re-enlisted men who have hastened back to the army at Lord Kitchener's call. Large Bodies of Territorials Ready. By December 1, when it is expected large bodies of British terri torials, who have volunteered foreign service, will have been trained sufficiently to take the field, it estimated that the force at Sir John French's disposal will reached 500,000 men. These will in clude the British and native troops from India and portions of the garri sons at Malta and Gibraltar.

By that time, also, many of the Austrian, Canadian and New Zealand detachments will have joined the for ces on the continent

Lord Kitchener's New Army. The bulk of Lord Kitchener's nev army of 1,000,000 men now coming into being will not, according to an expert military view, be ready for service in the field until next spring In the new army, according to au thoritative circles, there are nearly 200,000 old soldiers, who have served in the British regular army for peri these assist in training the new re-

According to officers recently arrived from England, all weakly men among the new recruits have rapidly weeded out and most of them are developing into fine shots.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—The government quarantine at the stock yards was modified this afternoon to permit the receipt and slaughter of cattle, hogs and sheep in this market. The ef have withdrawn to the interior. fect of this is to place the situation where it was Saturday

The livestock market took the tightening of the quarantine in nervfashlon. The bulk of the trades had been made before rumors of the according to a report today from the take part in the campaign at Oakley order were confirmed, but with con- American consul at Odessa. and Twin Falls.

dropped sharply for the moment, but as sharply recovered. Hogs, which had sold 5c to 10c under Saturday, advanced to a level 15c to 29c higher than the previous close. Chicago, Nov. 2.-The Union Stockyards, largest in the world, and the state of Illinois as well, were quarantined against the shipment of cat tie, hogs and sheep on orders from Washington today, according to a statement made by Dr. S. E. Bennett. chief of the local branch of the United States bureau of animal industry at the yards.

This means the practical cessation of the meat packing business at the yards for the time being," said Dr.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—A conference of leading interests at the Union Stock Yards was held here today to consider conditions arising from the government's modified order of quaran tine issued last Saturday.

A sensational report sent out by Nish, Servia, Saturday, Oct. 31, via 000 British soldiers are under the a news service ticker to the effect London, Nov. 2, 9,48 a. m—A semi-orders of Field Marshal Sir John that the quarantine had been made official note has been issued here as French on the firing lines. Added complete was denied by M. S. Horine, complete was denied by M. S. Horine, when the ticker story was repeat tween the main forces of Russia and englithmed." He added that the latthe Austro-German allies. declined for the time being to elucirumors that Saturday's orders prohibiting the shipment of cattle from the yards to other points except for immediate slaughter, was to be expanded to forbid the shipment of any live stock out of the yards for The Illinois Telegraph News ticker, however, declared with out stating authority, that this action

Washington, Nov. 2.—Dr. W. P. El-lenberger, chief of the field inspection bureau of animal industry, said today no new quarantine orde against the Union Stockyards at Chl cago had been issued, but that an extension of Saturday's order might be expected "at any moment." The Saturday order forbade shipment cattle except for immediate slaugh-

East St. Louis, Ill., Nov. 2.-No notice of a quarantine against the National Stock Yards here has been re ceived and the yards were in opera tion today as usual.

The Hague, Netherlands, Nov. 2 Via London, 10:55 a m.—The Handelsblad of Amsterdam has published report from Christiania saying that he managers of the Nobel institute have decided to give this year's peac price, which amounts to about $40,000 to the Netherlands government to be applied toward the support of Belgian refugees in Holland.

Washington, Nov. 2 .- Ghent is iso ated from communication according to a dispatch received by the American government sent by messenger to Fluis, Holland, by American Consul General Henry Albert Johnson. The dispatch added that the America con-sul general had ordered the consulate Ostend closed and had gone to Ghent where he was safe but without communication. Officials here infer that the fighting was so fierce in towns that all Americans the coast

Washington, Nov. 2 .- No Americans were injured in the Turkish bombardment of Odessa and the damage to American property was insignificant

FROM GERMANY

Renewed in Poland.

GERMANS RETREATING

Victory of Austrians in Southern Galicia Alleged to Be Complete.

Berlin, Nov. 2, via London, 11:35 a m.—Official reports from the west-ern theatre of war report no change in the situation in northern France and in Belgium, but events in Poland would appear to be shaping themselves for a renewal of the fight be

The Austrian and the German armies have completed their retirement to new positions previously selected the Russians, who were following them, came into touch with new lines, thre were several encount ters in which the Russians were driv-Austrians Victorious in Galicia. The Austrians in southern Galicia ave succeeded in crushing back the Russian left flank which for several lays has been making a desperate stand in carefully prepared positions between Turka and Stry-Sambor. The Russians employed the pause in the fighting after the Austrian retirement from this region to entrench them-They built strong field fortiselves. fications which were made more difficult of access, by the broken nature Consequently It was of the country. a hard task to eject them. The Austrians claim a complete victory and report that the enemy was driven from all his positions.

The Austrians also report further successes in Bukowina. retained their hold on Czernowitcz against a Russian attack and they have defeated a Russian force to the north of Kuthy. Loss of the Hermes.

A British report of the loss of the British cruiser Hermes last Saturday was made public here this after-No particulars however were

A dispatch received here from Con stantinople says it is understood the Turkish government will neither expel the subjects in Turkey of the powers composing the triple entente, nor interfere with those desiring to leave. Amsterdam, via London, Nov. 2, 0 45 a.m.—The correspondent of the Handelsblad telegraphs that the Turkh cruiser Sultan Selim, which bombarded Sebastopol. Is the cruiser known as the Goeben when the vessel was under the German flag. London, Nov. 2, 7:11 a. m .- A Rome dispatch to the Central News asserts that Turkish gunboats are reported at the entrance to the Gulf of Suez. Numerous detachments of Turkish cavalry, according to the same dispatch. have reached Akabah, a fortified village of Arabia on the gulf of the same CONGRESSMAN RETURNS.

Pocatello, Ida., Nov. 1.—Congress man Addison T. Smith arrived in this city yesterday on his way to Twin Falls from Washington, D. C. He will

Orpheum

Tonight 8:15 p. m.

Republican Rally

Gov. William Spry and Judge Rolapp